Department of Defense DIRECTIVE

November 25, 1996
NUMBER 1400.25

ASD(FMP)

SUBJECT: DoD Civilian Personnel Management System

References: (a) DoD Directive 1400.25, "Department of Defense Civilian Personnel Manual System," January 24, 1978 (hereby canceled)
(b) Title 5, United States Code, "Government Organization and Employees"
(c) Title 10, United States Code, "Armed Forces"
(d) Title 32, United States Code, "National Guard"
(e) through (q), see enclosure 1

A. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

This Directive:

1. Reissues reference (a) to update policy and assign responsibilities for civilian personnel management of the DoD civilian workforce under references (b) through (o).
2. Continues to authorize the publication of DoD 1400.25-M (reference (p)) and other related DoD Publications, consistent with DoD 5025.1-M (reference (q)).

B. APPLICABILITY

This Directive applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, and the DoD Field Activities (hereafter referred to collectively as "the DoD Components").

C. POLICY

It is DoD policy to:

1. Identify, jointly develop, and issue uniform civilian personnel policies, procedures, and guidance for DoD-wide application that reflect, to the maximum extent practicable, a total force perspective. Such policies shall be developed in conjunction with the Civilian Personnel Policy Council. The Council is chaired by the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Civilian Personnel Policy) and is comprised of representatives from the Military Departments, the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA), and Washington Headquarters Services (WHS). WHS represents the Defense Agencies, other than DLA, and the DoD Field Activities.

2. Issue DoD-wide, Military Department, and other DoD Component civilian personnel policies and procedures only when necessary to supplement a statute or federal rule or to meet Defense or DoD Component-unique needs.

3. Eliminate redundant and unnecessary regulations.

4. Assign civilian personnel to all positions that do not require military incumbents due to reasons of law, training, security, discipline, rotation, or combat readiness.

5. Develop and maintain standard civilian personnel data.

6. Develop, deploy, and maintain a single Defense Civilian Personnel Data System.

7. Provide direction and oversight for regionalization of DoD civilian personnel offices.

8. Delegate civilian personnel management authorities to the lowest practical level.

9. Provide DoD-wide internal and external placement systems to assist displaced DoD employees.

10. Provide civilian personnel policies and procedures that are consistent with and support merit system principles, equal compensation and employment opportunities, and workforce diversity goals and objectives, and that permit flexible work arrangements that allow employees to better balance their work and other (e.g., family) responsibilities.

D. RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The Assistant Secretary of Defense for Force Management Policy, within the office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, shall:

a. Promulgate DoD Publications to implement DoD policy and civilian personnel management procedures required and authorized by references (b) through (o).

b. Develop necessary legislation, regulations, or authorities to encourage and support flexibility in civilian personnel management and administration.

2. The Heads of the DoD Components

a. Shall implement the DoD civilian personnel policies, procedures, programs and requirements.

b. Shall comply with the philosophy and policy of the Secretary of Defense to keep policies and supplementation of DoD-wide policies to a minimum and eliminate regulations that are redundant or unnecessary.

c. May supplement the policies, procedures, requirements, and guidance as authorized in Chapter 100 of DoD 1400.25-M (reference (p)), and other related DoD issuances.

d. Shall delegate civilian personnel management authorities to the lowest practical level.

E. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Directive is effective immediately.
